

Board Members

Name: Paul Millar

Paul has been involved with Compassion Society for 3 years and with support from ForestView church has helped lead it through the steps of incorporation. He lives in Burlington with his wife Elizabeth and their five children including newborn Simon!

Name: Ken Bell

Ken has served on the board for the past year and has been a great support by managing our finances. Ken doesn't mind getting his hands dirty and so has taken responsibility for emptying our Appleby Line donation box. Ken lives in Burlington with his wife Jen and their three children.

Name: Sandra Reffell

Sandra has served with Compassion Society for the past year and has helped us with minute taking as well as advising us on insurance and liability matters. Sandra is married to Lance and lives in Flamborough with their two children.

Name: Jeff Wahn

Jeff has served with Compassion Society for the past year and has helped us to identify foundations and funders interested in the mission of Compassion Society. Jeff is engaged and he and Sharon will live in Hamilton, where Jeff currently resides, after their August wedding!

Name: Karen Hillis

Karen has been with Compassion Society for the past year and a half and has brought her skills and experience in grant writing to us. Karen is married to Jon and lives in Burlington with their son.

Name: Jake Jung

Jake has been involved with Compassion Society for the past few months and brings his experience as a small business owner to bear upon our decision making. Jake owns Sonaggi Computers and sold us our first laptop! Jake lives in Burlington with his wife and two young children.

Name: Justin Poirier

Justin has been involved with Compassion Society for the past 5 months and has been looking after our marketing & communications including our website and electronic newsletter. Justin lives in Oakville and works at the Ford of Canada corporate headquarters.